

Pulmonary Embolism - Low Risk Case (score < 2)

"Near Live" Usability Testing

History (Standardized patient):

Provider: "Hi, what brings you in today?"

Patient: "I have had a cough for a while. During the past one month, my cough has gotten progressively worse. The cough has been productive with yellowish mucus. Just one day prior, I began to streaks of blood in the sputum."

Patient has a tissue stained with blood in his/her hand.

Physical Exam (Provided in written form):

T 99, HR 95, Lungs: CTABL, Ext: No LEE or ttp